Black/white standard: a resin-coated paper with a glossy or semi-matte (pearl) finish

Black/white fiber-base: a heavy stock exhibit-quality paper. Fiber-base prints take approximately 1 week to produce and are not available for rush service.

Color paper: used for color reproduction and all prints over 20" x 24." Black/white images printed on color paper have a semi-sepia tone.

Please note that some reproduction sizes may not be appropriate for the images selected. Original images produced by certain historic printing processes or those that are very small in size will not reproduce well above 11" x 14." We will inform you before processing your order if this is the case.

Additional Fees

Lab Fees

The Museum has a large body of copy negatives and scans, but it may be necessary to photograph and/or scan images or artifacts in order to create your print. If necessary the following fees will apply.

Black and white copy negative	$27
Scanning previously undigitized images for color prints	$30
Color photography for an original larger than 11x14 (includes scan)	$100
Photography of paintings or three-dimensional artifacts:	$150 minimum
Special set-ups will be quoted. If deemed necessary by the Curator of Photographs and Prints or the Senior Curator of Museum Collections, a $50 per hour charge for curatorial handling may apply.

Rush Service

Rush service is not available at this time.

Postage and Handling (U.S. Postal Service)

All prints larger than 11"x 14" are shipped in a tube with a minimum charge of $5.00 in addition to the standard rate listed below

First Class Domestic $5.00

International Air Mail $10.00

The Museum assumes NO responsibility for delivery time or condition of materials shipped via the U.S. Postal Service. We do not ship via USPS Express Mail.

Overnight or Express Delivery (Federal Express) varies

The Museum encourages the shipment of large or time-sensitive materials via Federal Express. All materials are shipped at the client's expense, and a valid Federal Express account number or credit card number is required.
