

Tour Request Form

Group Tours

The Missouri History Museum offers a variety of opportunities for groups to enjoy their visit to the Museum. Choose from an assortment of options (listed below) to create a tour experience customized to your groups needs.

Once your request is received by the Reservation Department, availability will be confirmed and a group booking created. A confirmation will be mailed, emailed or faxed within two (2) business days. If we are unable to accommodate your request we will contact you to discuss alternatives for your group.

Please be aware that no tour is considered booked until a confirmation letter has been issued by the Reservations Department. Tentative bookings will be held for four (4) business days.
