EXPLORING YOUR family tree

A stylized illustration of a tree with a brown trunk and branches, and a large green circular canopy. A small blue bird is perched on one of the branches. The background is a light blue sky with white clouds and a yellow ground area.

Learn about the variety of Missouri History Museum resources — including census records, city directories, old newspapers, and government records — available to help you research your family's history.

Dennis Northcott, a trained archivist and knowledgeable genealogist, will lead the class at the Missouri History Museum Library and Research Center.
