

STORYTELLING AT THE MISSOURI HISTORY MUSEUM

Fridays at 10:30 a.m.
Saturdays at 1 p.m.

Storytelling at the Museum

Fridays at 10:30 a.m.
Saturdays at 1 p.m.

Storytelling Workshops in the classroom-turned-kidzone are on hiatus for the spring and summer but will return in November!*

These programs engage our youngest visitors and their families in historic objects and museum settings by using traditional and contemporary stories. Children will hear stories in the galleries and also enjoy a hands-on craft. Stories are recommended for children ages 2–7. Adults welcome with children. Check with Guest Services for locations.

FREE

Fri., April 30, and Sat., May 1 — Reading Royalty

Join us for stories about queens, kings, princes, and princesses.

Fri., May 7, and Sat., May 8 — Happy Teeth

Taking care of our teeth might seem tricky, but really it's not that bad! Come hear about characters who have overcome tooth trouble.

Fri., May 14, and Sat., May 15 — Smile with the Crocodiles

Alligators and crocodiles might seem scary, but in our stories they're fun and lovable.

Fri., May 21, and Sat., May 22 — How Does Your Garden Grow?

Join us in the trolley on the Museum's front lawn for stories about beautiful blooms.

Fri., May 28, and Sat., May 29 — No Storytelling

Fri., June 4, and Sat., June 5 — Three Little Pigs

You think you know how the story goes, but maybe the big bad wolf wasn't so big and bad.... Hear different versions of this fairy tale classic!

Fri., June 11, and Sat., June 12 — Wiggle Worms

Inch on over to the Museum to hear stories about these creepy crawly creatures.

Fri., June 18, and Sat., June 19 — Sing Along

Join us for stories about singing. Children will enjoy singing familiar tunes as we read books and join together in hand motions.

Fri., June 25, and Sat., June 26 — Splish Splash

Summer is officially here, so we'll tell stories about fun in the water!
