Join us for the Missouri History Museum's Second Annual Green Living Expo! Our exhibition Missouri Botanical Garden: Green for 150 Years 1859-2009 will be our inspiration as we explore "green living" in the 21st century. Featuring a timeline of the Missouri Botanical Garden, photographs, artifacts and an audio tour, the 1,000-square-foot gallery examines the rich history of the oldest continually operating botanical garden in the United States. Bring your family and friends to visit this free exhibit and enjoy eco-friendly shopping, educational demonstrations, music and more!
