Bring the whole family for interactive fun that's good for the mind and body! St. Louis Children's Hospital in partnership with the Missouri History Museum rolls out Kohl's Safety Street, an interactive "town" where children learn important safety messages including pedestrian safety, and how to deal with strangers and neighborhood animals.

Free bike helmet safety checks and fittings will also be available. Safety experts can make sure your child's helmet fits correctly. If your child needs a new helmet, it can be purchased at a discounted price of $8.

Families will also enjoy other fun activities, including making a healthy snack and creating a craft to take home. Special storytelling sessions will be held on Friday and Saturday, as well as an appearance by Radio Disney. Look out for Snerdlihc, the hospital mascot, who will be stopping by!
