DONOR INFORMATION

Papers were donated by Dr. David Light in December 2003. Dr. Light had received the papers from one of his patients, William Luke, circa 1965.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Henry Goss was born circa 1820 in Florissant, St. Louis County, Missouri. He married Jane Martin, who presumably died in the 1850s. Henry Goss married Octavia Street (nee Brazeau) on February 5, 1857, in St. Louis County. He died circa April 24, 1869, near Florissant at the age of 49. His daughter Adeline married Wendel Emerling December 8, 1874, in St. Louis County.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection is arranged chronologically and contains family correspondence, business papers, and newspaper clippings of the Goss and Emerling (or Emmerling) families of St. Louis. Notable items include the day book of Henry Goss' general store at Florissant, 1838-1842; discharge papers of Ohio Civil War soldier Wendel Emerling; and World War II ration book of Irene Ella Emmerling. Collection also includes two family letters written to James and William H. Luke, who possibly were related to the Goss-Emerling family.

- 1838-1842 Day book of Henry Goss' general store at Florissant. Nineteenth-century newspaper clippings are pasted on many of the pages. These clippings contain recipes, marriage announcements, death notices, and other articles relating to Florissant area residents. Genealogical notes regarding the Goss, Martin, and Withington families are pasted on the front cover.
