DONOR INFORMATION

Collection was donated in November 1982 by Louis W. Miller.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Louis Miller was born October 13, 1853, in Jefferson County, Missouri, but moved at a young age to Arcadia, Missouri. He became an architect and builder and one of Arcadia's most prominent citizens. He also promoted the Arcadia Valley as a summer resort. He married Miss Salena Ringo in 1892. Louis Miller died October 21, 1933, in Arcadia; his wife died April 4, 1943, in Ironton, Missouri.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection includes three publications promoting tourism in the Arcadia Valley in the early 1900s; a typescript history of Arcadia; a scrapbook; newspaper clippings relating to Louis Miller, his family, and Arcadia; and several architectural drawings.

The following three periodical issues were transferred to the library in 2003:

The Building Age, August 1916

The Ozark Art Mirror, Vol. 1, No. 1 (July 1909)

The New Southwest: A Home Journal for the Modern Farmer, Vol. III, No. IV (May 1906)

Twenty-five photographs and postcards of Louis Miller and family and homes built by Miller were transferred to the Photographs and Prints Department in 2003.
