

MOVEMENT IN BLACK AND WHITE

An interdisciplinary Gallery + Classroom program

EXPLORE

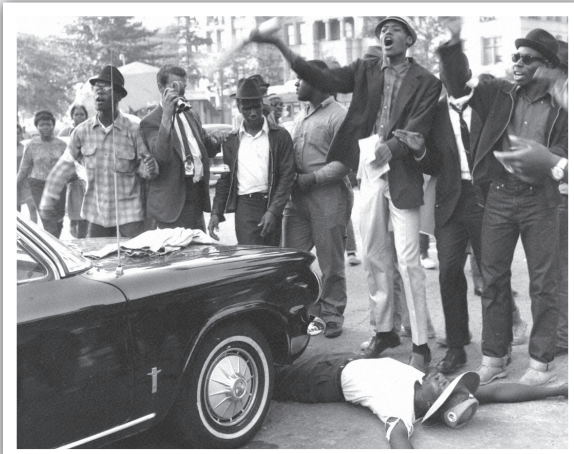

the civil rights history of St. Louis

DISCOVER

the power of individuals to change their communities

EXPERIENCE

a dance workshop based on true stories of trial and triumph

(Above)
Ivory Perry lies down in front of a car during a protest against police brutality. Photograph by Lester Linck, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, 1965. Missouri History Museum.

				 GLEs
6-12	2 hours	FREE with reservations	Min. 25 Max. 100	PA, SS, CA	Feb. 1, 2012 - May 11, 2012

Questions about our school programs?
Call Education Coordinator Lisa Gilbert at (314)454-3116.

Ready to book? Guarantee your students' experiences by calling (314)361-9017 today!

MISSOURI HISTORY MUSEUM

Lindell & DeBaliviere
Forest Park
314.746.4599
mohistory.org/schools

Missouri History Museum